

WINTER 2019

A MESSAGE FROM MIKE LATHAM, EXECUTIVE CHAIRMAN

Team,

As you have heard since I joined the company, we have an exciting future ahead of us, one marked with significant growth. Since July we have been implementing new strategies, welcomed new leaders, and launched new service lines that will support this future growth and establish The Service Companies as the nation's premier provider of outsourced solutions.

This In-Brief issue, my first one, shows some of these changes that have taken place. You will get to meet our newest leadership team appointments and promotions, learn more about our new Engineering Services division, and get to see what our teams have been up to across the nation. This issue also includes some information about some of the opportunities each of you has by being a part of our team, including opportunities to get involved with Clean The World, grow your career with our Emerging Leaders and Acrobat Academy programs, be recognized through our President's Awards, or receive a scholarship toward your or your child's education.

We are off to a great start for the year. Acrobat Outsourcing is coming off of their most successful year to date having staffed 1.6 million hours and opened two new offices. We expect this success and growth to continue this year with Marc Caplan at the helm. JRS International is having one of its best years yet as well after cleaning 120,000 chandeliers in 2018. Our Managed Services and Engineering Services teams have had a strong first quarter as we prepare for the summer season, which is historically our busiest.

As we enter May, I want to thank you for your support. I believe we have a very successful year ahead and your continued dedication, leadership and hard work will be crucial to us achieving this.

I look forward to speaking with you at your property soon!

Sincerely,

Mike Latham
Executive Chairman

2018 AT A GLANCE

SHINE UPDATES

A Focus on our Cohort Solutions

Our SHINE Campaign cohort solutions are always a main focus because they provide us with a deeper understanding of our company culture. The first cohort focuses on establishing a fluid recruitment experience for new hires to easily transition into our operations team. Our cohort solution ideals continue with a unique on boarding experience; our associates are welcomed by their "Partner in SHINE" and receive resources and property-specific training. The cohorts are geared towards the initial understanding of our tenure cycle and are enforced to support engagement, recognition and opportunities for growth among all of our associates. We also simplified our internal and external guest experience training by implementing an acronym. One can find our "SHINE" culture throughout our properties across the nation. "SHINE" stands for Smile, Humility, Integrity, Navigate and Excellence.

Career Development

We also promoted our Emerging Leaders initiative, which refers to the "N" in Shine ("Navigate"). Our leaders were encouraged to select a well-rounded associate that they thought would be capable of learning more about the different facets of our company, while experiencing operations at our different properties. Once the training was complete, our Emerging Leaders were ready to take on an elevated role.

Engagement Initiatives

We have held several engagement activities including International Housekeeping Week, Halloween parties with pumpkin craft submissions and Thanksgiving Turkey Craft competitions. We ended the year with a Holiday jingle and began 2019 with our #GoalstoSHINE activity, which allowed associates to write down goals they had for the year. As part of our culture, we continue to work cohesively and our teams nationwide remain a constant resource to our overall success.

Financial Training

Over the last several months, our team also focused on financial training. Each regional leader had been tasked with delivering specific strategies to their locations to educate their team about financial responsibility. When it came to understanding and learning key financial fundamentals, participation from all associates was the key to running an operation, while fulfilling client expectations.

Operations Best Practices

As part of supplementing our training efforts, we also focused on operational best practices so leaders were able to learn from one another; last quarter, we put an emphasis on "Inspecting what you expect". Our operational standards included property specific inspection processes, which tied into coaching procedures and recognitions. We take pride in ensuring that client and guest expectations are met by pairing our operational training standards with property branding and visual standards.

One of our property leaders in Florida provided best practices and specific examples of how she coached and rewarded associates based on inspection score results. In addition, we have been working closely with property leaders to refresh tactics and revisit how we can fully utilize this company standard for continued training and development.

One of our leaders from Nevada, who received top guest service scores at his property, provided us with tools and best practices on how he connect with his team. He began by identifying the leadership positions on his team and the skill sets associated with each. From there, he challenged his team to fully utilize these skills and designed a process to monitor their achievements. In the end, the property ended up with the highest guest service scores compared to other properties in its brand. This property also won back-to-back nationwide competitions and continues to heavily participate in engagement and associate recognition initiatives.

CLEAN THE WORLD

SERVICE TRIP TO ZAMBIA

For the sixth consecutive year, we were able to send another team member on a trip to assist in the distribution of recycled soap and hygiene kits. Catherine Francois, a housekeeping team member from one of our casino hotel properties in Laughlin, Nevada, was selected to represent our company on a service trip to Zambia, Africa, along with members of Clean The World and Caesars Entertainment.

When Catherine arrived in Zambia, she visited three underserved communities and, with the other Clean The World and Caesars Entertainment participants, distributed soaps and hygiene kits, taught families how to properly wash their hands, and participated in skits to enforce good sanitation practices.

Interview with Catherine Francois

What was your reaction to hearing you were selected to go on the soap distribution trip to Zambia?

When I heard that I was selected to go to Zambia with Clean The World I couldn't contain my excitement. I jumped and shouted with joy. I couldn't stop talking about it.

What Clean The World initiatives did you participate in during your time in Zambia?

In Zambia, I participated in each Clean The World activity. During our first performance, I played the role of "Super Soap". In the second and third performance, I played a germ. I also demonstrated good hand washing techniques to the audience during our second visit. I sang and distributed soaps during all three site visits.

Besides soap distribution and sanitation education, what else were you able to experience while in Zambia?

I was able to experience a few things in Zambia. In Lusaka, I experienced several different restaurants. I also visited the local markets to look around, shop for souvenirs, and interact with locals in the area. In Livingston, I was able to have a fascinating experience when I saw Mosi-oa-Tunya National Park and Great Victoria Falls. I also experienced a safari ride where I was able to see many animals in their natural habitats.

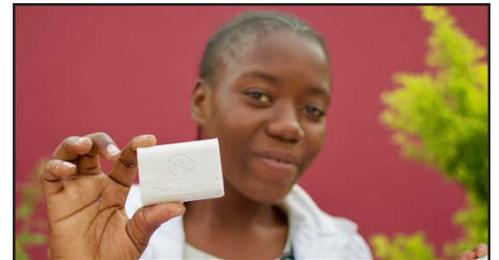

What was the most memorable part of your trip?

The most memorable part of my trip was all the different ways the people welcomed us. I will always remember the faces of children patiently waiting for hours to receive their soaps, as well as their excitement once they saw us arriving on site.

What did you learn from your trip to Zambia?

I learned that Clean The World does not just give hygiene products to these families. They keep track of their progress throughout the year. They make sure that these communities are using what they learned to stay healthy and check in to make sure kids are not missing school due to hygiene-related illnesses.

How has this trip impacted you?

This trip has impacted my view on life. It has forced me to look at things differently. It also made me think of what I can do to help others who are less fortunate.

Would you recommend others take a trip with Clean The World? Why or why not?

I would recommend that everyone take a trip with Clean The World to see how even the smallest efforts have the ability to make big impact on the lives of others.

TOP SHINE ON YOU

DeAngelo Delone

DeAngelo Delone received a great review from a guest for his customer service. The guest had stopped DeAngelo in the hall and told him she had a problem with her bathtub drain. DeAngelo checked to see if it was something he could fix. Unfortunately, he could not and maintenance had to be called. DeAngelo checked back with the guest about an hour later to see if the issue was taken care of. The guest was very impressed he was considerate enough to follow up with her to see it was resolved. DeAngelo Delone was awarded with a SHINE certificate and a $25 gift card for his customer service. Great job, DeAngelo!

Rodelaine Lazare

Rodelaine Lazare found a guest's box of gift cards after they checked out. Rodelaine turned them in to lost and found. The guest wrote a very kind note to the general manager thanking her for her honesty and turning them in. Thank you, Rodelaine for helping this guest!

Luxury Hotel in South Beach

Congratulations to our South Beach property who placed #7 out of the top 10 Hotels in the U.S. We would like to thank our entire team as they continue to work hard to make our client and the property shine. Such a great achievement. Thank you all!

Jasmine Davis

Our swing shift dispatcher, Jasmine Davis, is not only a great employee, but she delivers amazing customer service! A guest left her iPad in the room and Jasmine followed the proper procedure by turning it in to lost and found. The guest sent a note stating, "After arriving back in Dallas, I had not realized that I had lost my iPad. Jasmine went above and beyond getting my iPad back to me. I'm impressed with her care and customer service. Please give her commendation for her care, as I will be a returning customer".

Latricia Reaux

Latricia Reaux received a $25 gift card for helping us pass another property key audit. When the auditor, impersonating a guest, asked to enter into a room without having a key, Latricia kindly informed them that they would have to visit the front desk for assistance. She remembered our policy of "No Key, No Access" and passed the audit. Thank you, Latricia.

Beverly Campbell

Last week, a guest had an accident on the casino floor. When the call came in, Beverly sprung into action. Though the issue was quite intense, Beverly never complained and finished the job in a timely and thorough manner. She was working alongside the property manager, and under the watchful eyes of the Facilities Director and the Director of Risk and Safety, which added to the pressure. Beverly was not only recognized by our team, but received a free buffet from the property. We are so happy to have Beverly on our team and can't thank her enough for all she does!
